

NATIVE PRIDE DANCER

"Our students had such an awesome time. Not only did they learn more about Native American culture, but they had a lot of fun while doing it. We can't wait to have you back!"

– Bitz Intermediate School, Camp Lejeune, NC

"The performer was able to really focus on our core content and used terminology our students are tested over. He was able to do all of this while educating and entertaining staff and students alike well beyond our expectations. Thank you so much!"

– North Point Elementary School, Hebron, KY

The Bureau of Lectures is always striving to bring schools the best in culturally diverse programming. The Native Pride Dancer is one of the best examples of that ethos touring the country today. He will teach your students about the beauty, symbolism, and skill of Native American music, dance, and regalia (dress). The performance will include traditional stories, musical styles, and insight into the history of Native American life. The program will be vibrant, interactive, educational, and engaging for students and staff.

Another of the many advantages of bringing the Native Pride Dancer to your school is that the program will also touch on many areas of your schools curriculum: Social Studies/History/Physical Education, and Music/Performing Arts. Like all of our shows, this program takes pride in being inclusive for special education students.

"In my opinion, this was the best assembly we have ever had. The Native Pride Dancer had all the qualities of the perfect assembly: education, entertainment, and student involvement. Thanks again!"

*– Frontier Schools,
Red Rock, Oklahoma*
