

Jump for Life

April Vollm is a Las Vegas based Physical Comedic Performer who has traveled the world entertaining audiences ranging from a classroom of 10 students to an arena full of 10,000 families. She has shared her love of laughter and the stage with audiences from around the country and in over 15 countries around the world. From acting, singing, and dancing to magic, clowning, and aerial arts, you name it, she probably has it in her bag of tricks and she cannot wait to JUMP at the chance to share some of her acquired skills and talents with your school!

April's Show Features

- ◆ Rope Jumping
- ◆ Juggling
- ◆ Aerial Hoop
- ◆ Audience Participation
- ◆ Any "theme" the school would like

"This show was perfect for our school. The students loved April's humor and tricks, it was the perfect blend of education and entertainment. April was prompt, professional, and charismatic and she made the audience want to live healthier – a major win!"

– Heidi Zwerk, Teacher, Freeland, MI

"Wow! April captivated our students and held their attention throughout the entire assembly (I thought the juggling was incredible). Even our staff members commented on how they were going to buy a jump rope that evening, clearly a job well done. As the day went on I received more and more positive comments including a general consensus that this was the best assembly we have ever had!"

– Melissa Lightner, Teacher, Harrisburg, PA

"April was amazing and did an excellent job! Our whole school loved the program and we are preschool through twelfth grade! Everyone, including the staff, was energized from her performance and I know she made a difference with our kids."

– Lori Galbraith, Administrator, Punxsutawney, PA

